Dear Prof. Goldwasser,

We have received from our friend the message and invitation for the 2016 China Israel Summit, mainly hosted by Infinity Group.
It is said to be the first China-Israel Summit, while the largest national summit in the presence of China's Science and Technology minister and Israel's Energy Minister alongside leading Chinese companies/investors and 100 Israeli technology companies for 3 days activities, including B2B (one on one) meetings and networking.

We will certainly not go to the meeting. But it seems that there are more activities between Israel and China…. FYI. Thank you!

Looking forward to meeting you in January.

Best Regards,

Yun
